

Geography of Canada

Compass Navigation

Compass Navigation

- Geographic North – is called the north pole or true north and is where all lines of longitude meet when giving directions.
- Magnetic North – is the place where every compass points
- Magnetic Declination – is the angular distance between geographic north and magnetic north.

