

Types of Industry

Read pages 270-275 in your textbook and answer the following questions:

- [1] Define in your own words each of the following:
- (a) Primary industry
 - (b) Secondary industry
 - (c) Tertiary industry
- [2] Draw bar graphs to show the percentage of the labour force employed in each sub-category shown in Figure 22-4 on page 273 in your textbook.
- Use a different colour for each category - primary, secondary, tertiary.
 - Include a title and labels for both the vertical axis and horizontal axis.
- [3] Indicate the category each of the following items belongs to (primary, secondary, or tertiary industries).
- | | |
|-----------------------|-----------------------|
| (a) Raw materials | (k) Farming |
| (b) Manufacturing | (l) Transportation |
| (c) Factory | (m) Dentist |
| (d) Mining | (n) Insurance |
| (e) Civil servant | (o) Fishing |
| (f) Natural resources | (p) Pulp & paper mill |
| (g) Ski resort | (q) Fire fighter |
| (h) Forestry | (r) Utilities |
| (i) Services | (s) Education |
| (j) Construction | |
- [4] What is the difference between a basic industry and a non-basic industry?
- [5] Which of the following are basic jobs and which are non-basic jobs? Explain each answer.
- (a) An assembly line worker in the Ford Auto Factory in Oakville
 - (b) A fire fighter in your community
 - (c) A wheat farmer in Saskatchewan
 - (d) A Teller at the local bank
 - (e) Professor at Brock University
 - (f) Actor at the Stratford Shakespearean Festival
- [6] Describe a situation in which each of the following can be basic in nature and a situation in which it can be non-basic:
- (a) A doctor
 - (b) A bus driver
 - (c) A golf professional